

Social Media Usage and Emotional Well-Being Report

This report explores the relationship between social media usage and emotional well-being based on a dataset of social media usage patterns and the dominant emotional state of users.

Summary of Data

The dataset contains 206 entries, with columns for user ID, age, gender, platform, and various usage metrics.

Descriptive Statistics

Average Daily Usage Time: 88.01 minutes

Median Daily Usage Time: 75.00 minutes

Standard Deviation of Daily Usage Time: 33.98 minutes

Social Media Platform Usage

Platform Usage Distribution:

Facebook: 25

Twitter: 19

Instagram: 16

LinkedIn: 15

Snapchat: 13

Telegram: 11

Whatsapp: 4

Emotional State Distribution

Emotional State Distribution:

Neutral: 28

Anxiety: 22

Boredom: 16

Happiness: 14

Sadness: 14

Anger: 9

Conclusion

Based on the analysis of the dataset, we observe certain trends such as the average daily usage time and its correlation with the emotional state of users. Further research is recommended to explore deeper insights.